

Township Public Schools

WAYNE VALLEY HIGH SCHOOL

WAYNE ROTARY

NEW JERSEY GOVERNOR'S SCHOOL

SELECTIONS

The Wayne Rotary selected Catherine Olson and Patrick Emolo of Wayne Valley High School to attend the four day Rotary Youth Leadership Awards (RYLA) conference in May. These students were identified to express great leadership qualities, and during their time at RYLA, they will focus on developing their leadership skills, learn team-building activities, and gain knowledge from professional development topics. Congratulations to Catherine and Patrick!

The prestigious New Jersey Governor's School has selected Anisha Shin and Kian Vilhauer of Wayne Valley High School to attend their programs for several weeks this summer. Governor's School is a unique and intensive residential program that brings together some of New Jersey's most talented and motivated high school students. Anisha was chosen to attend the Governor's School in the Sciences at Drew University, and Kian was selected for the Governor's School of Engineering and Technology at Rutgers. Congratulations to Anisha and Kian!

May 2017

WAYNE HILLS HIGH SCHOOL

WAYNE ROTARY

NEW JERSEY GOVERNOR'S SCHOOL

NEW JERSEY AMERICAN LEGION BOYS STATE CONFERENCE

SELECTIONS

The Wayne Rotary selected Amanda Carey of Wayne Hills High School to attend the four day Rotary Youth Leadership Awards (RYLA) conference in May. Amanda is excited to participate in the program after listening to the great experience her sister, Megan had when she attended two years ago. Amanda is already a leader and a role model here at Wayne Hills, as well as a u-tube video producer and star. She participates in numerous clubs and activities at Wayne Hills and she is an exceptional young lady. During her time at RYLA, she will have an opportunity to further developing her leadership skills, she will learn team-building activities, and she will gain knowledge from various professional development topics. Congratulations to Amanda!

The prestigious New Jersey Governor's School has selected Sandra Yang and Carolyn Jeon of Wayne Hills High School to attend their programs for several weeks this summer. Governor's School is a unique and intensive residential program that brings together some of New Jersey's most talented and motivated high school students. Sandra was chosen to attend the Governor's School in the Sciences at Drew University, and Carolyn was selected for the Governor's School of Engineering and Technology at Rutgers. Congratulations to Sandra and Carolyn!

Francesco (Frankie) Terranova of Wayne Hills High School has been selected to attend the New Jersey American Legion Boys State conference this summer. Frankie, a varsity baseball player and a motivated student who excels in many Advanced Placement classes, earned the rank of Eagle Scout earlier this year. Frankie is looking forward to participating in the Boys State conference and having the opportunity to further strengthen the skills he developed as a result of working on his Eagle Scout project - leadership, organization, and good communication with others. Congratulations, Frankie!